VOIR DIRE

Good morning, ladies and gentlemen, I am about to ask you a series of questions that we call voir dire. The purpose of the voir dire examination is:

- (a) to enable the court to determine whether or not any prospective juror should be excused for cause;
- (b) to enable counsel for the parties to exercise their individual judgment with respect to peremptory challenges – that is, challenges for which counsel need not give a reason.

If any of you answer “yes” to any of these questions, I would ask that you to stand up and, upon being recognized by me, to state your number. At the end of the questions, I will ask those who have responded “yes” to any of the questions to come to sidebar (that is, up to the bench next to me) with counsel for the parties to discuss your answers.

- Staff introduced

● Panel sworn

This case is expected to take 8 days to try. The schedule that I expect to maintain over those 8 days will be as follows:

We will normally begin the day at 9:00 a.m. promptly. We will go until 1:00 p.m. and, after a one hour break for lunch, from 2:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. There will be a fifteen minute break at 11:00 a.m. and another fifteen minute break at 3:15 p.m. One exception to this schedule may occur when the case is submitted to those of you who are selected to serve as jurors for your deliberation. On that day, the proceedings might last beyond 5:00 p.m. We will post a copy of this schedule for the jury's convenience in the jury deliberation room.

1. Does the length of this trial or the schedule contemplated by the court present a special problem to any member of the panel?

Description of The Case

This case is an action for patent infringement arising under the patent laws of the United States. The plaintiff in this case is Telcordia Technologies, Inc. (or simply "Telcordia"), formerly known as Bell Communications Research or Bellcore. The defendants in this case are Cisco Systems (or simply "Cisco") and Lucent Technologies (or simply "Lucent").

For those of you selected to serve as jurors, I will give you more detailed instructions regarding the meaning of the word infringement once you are sworn-in as jurors and again at the conclusion of the trial. For now, I will simply tell you that Cisco and Lucent are accused by Telcordia of infringing the patents in suit by making, using, selling or offering for sale certain telecommunications and data communications equipment. Telcordia contends that Cisco's and Lucent's products infringe their patents, and seeks damages for this alleged infringement. Cisco and Lucent deny that they infringe Telcordia's patents and contend that Telcordia's patents are invalid and unenforceable. Has any member of the panel heard or read anything about this case?
